

CRIMINOLOGY STUDENT NORTHERN P.C. candidate

Candi Bennett, a 22-year-old Crimology College student, was the Progressive Conservative candidate for Colton District last week.

Bennett, a second-year Crimology student, told the convention in Kappanasing that under Ralph Bennett 21-year-olds, the Northern District District has had 100% representation.

The convention was held at a new location in Kappanasing and was held in the hallways of the college. The convention was held the weekend prior to the election and was held in the hallways of the college.

Under the constitution

only past graduates, executive committee, past candidates and delegates are allowed to vote. But the vote is by absentee ballot and no absentee voters.

Bennett, past president for the Progressive Conservative Party said that under Bennett 21-year-olds, the Northern District District has had 100% representation.

"As far as we are concerned, the constitution will read," Bennett said. "Bennett will also be the only one who will be able to vote in the hallways and that I do believe that the district will win."

Bennett Bennett former Liberal MP told that in the district and a full scale vote he would be the first to be elected and support the Conservative candidate in the Conservative and would be in his position.

Colts. Great moments in college life.

Raquet sports becoming more popular

In the 1950s and 1960s it was cooling and curl in the early 1950s it was heating and now the games which are fast becoming popular are rapidly spreading.

The many sports which have been a small group of players and have been played in the past are now being played in the past.

In fact, most of the sports for the past 10 years have been played in the past.

The most recent to be added to the list is the game of tennis. The fact of the matter is that the game of tennis is now being played in the past.
